Winter rain coverall

With this smooth and durable winter coverall in Flexothane® fabric, you can continue to move mountains in all-weather circumstances. The 100% water and windproof stretchable fabric ensures that you can move without hindrance. The fixed quilted lining and the knitted wind cuffs in the sleeves protect you from the cold. The hood is stowed away in the standing collar and at the bottom of the leg a zipper with flap and touch and close fastening is provided. The light and durable coverall with zip closure with double flap and touch and close fastening is provided with two patched chest pockets and two thigh pockets.
